FOREWORD

In this year's Oak, we would like to depict a year of history at Lafayette High School. This has been a year of fun, excitement, and enjoyment; a year of hard work and scholastic achievement; a year of golden memories.

These are the memories that we have tried to capture and record in this book—the memories of this year of 1967 and 1968.

And now, we present to you this book—the book of golden memories which each of you have lived at Lafayette High School.

by Carol Langemach, a member of The Oak Staff

Dear Queen:
We've known each other for so long & [illegible] years & graduation time has gone too fast. You've always been very friendly & nice to me. I hope one day I can return the favor. Best of luck in all you do & a friend forever

Dedication

This is our golden year of achievement. For fifty years Lafayette High School has served the youth of North St. Joseph and has sent them forth to assume positions of responsibility in all fields of endeavor in this their home town, and in their state, and in the nation.

We salute all of those Lafayette students of yesteryear who walked these halls, learned life's lessons, played hard for the honor of Lafayette on gridiron, court, and stage. To these alumni we are grateful.

Most of all, we are appreciative of the parents of Lafayette students who, through the years, have supported all activities of the school in a loyal, wholehearted manner. Never have they been given a challenge that was for school betterment that it was not met in an admirable fashion.

To alumni and parents—we dedicate our GOLDEN OAK.

OUR GOLDEN YEAR

During this, our Golden Year, there will be many occasions displaying activity, ingenuity, and beauty.

The first of these occasions was the crowning of our Golden Football Queen, Randi Rhodes on October 6, 1967. Members of the football team were the escorts; and the beauty of the girls' dresses as well as the setting made this a scene of regal splendor. We greet thee, Queen Randi I.

HONORS TO— UNDERCLASSMEN

3.7 grade average—necessary for juniors to get a gold pin.

3.0-3.7 average is not easy to get; but these juniors did it.

Sophomores receiving silver pins have attained high honors.

Bronze pins awarded to freshmen show the promise of more to come.

Sophomores receiving certificates display high scholastic ability.

Freshmen certificate winners may be cup winners as seniors.

HONORS TO— SENIORS

Nancy Morton and Mike Oxford display their trophies for vocal and instrumental music.

Trophies in 1967 were awarded to D. Mejia, Light; D. Crabtree, Speech; J. Pawling, Home Economics; L. Cable, Oak; R. Smith, Sports; S. Kretzer, Commerce; C. Blake, Creative Writing; A. Smith, Art; S. Olson, Mathematics.

Joan Estes was awarded the English and Science Trophies. The Foreign Language and Social Studies trophies were received by Karen Huber.

SCHOLASTIC TROPHY WINNERS: Karen Huber, Social Studies; Joan Estes, Science; Nancy Morton, Vocal Music; Steven Olson, Mathematics.

CURATORS' AWARDS: ROW 1--C. Blake, M. Montemayor, K. Herbert, D. Graham, P. Severns, P. Whiteman, G. Dunn, C. Vaughn. ROW 2--S. Poage, H. Foster, F. Von Kaenel, J. Allen, A. Smith, F. Gatewood, M. Dewey, J. Everett, B. Kent.

LAMPIONS LIGHT THE WAY.

On April 25, 1967, members of the Lampion Honor Society were installed. To qualify for this honor, a student must have maintained a 3.5 average.

Scholarship is their aim. Indeed, these Golden Lampions "light the way" for progress and achievement in the prosperous world of today, and the ever-advancing world of tomorrow.

Miss Ficklin presents the rose to Karen Keller.

John Allen receives the Lampion pin from Mr. Blakley.

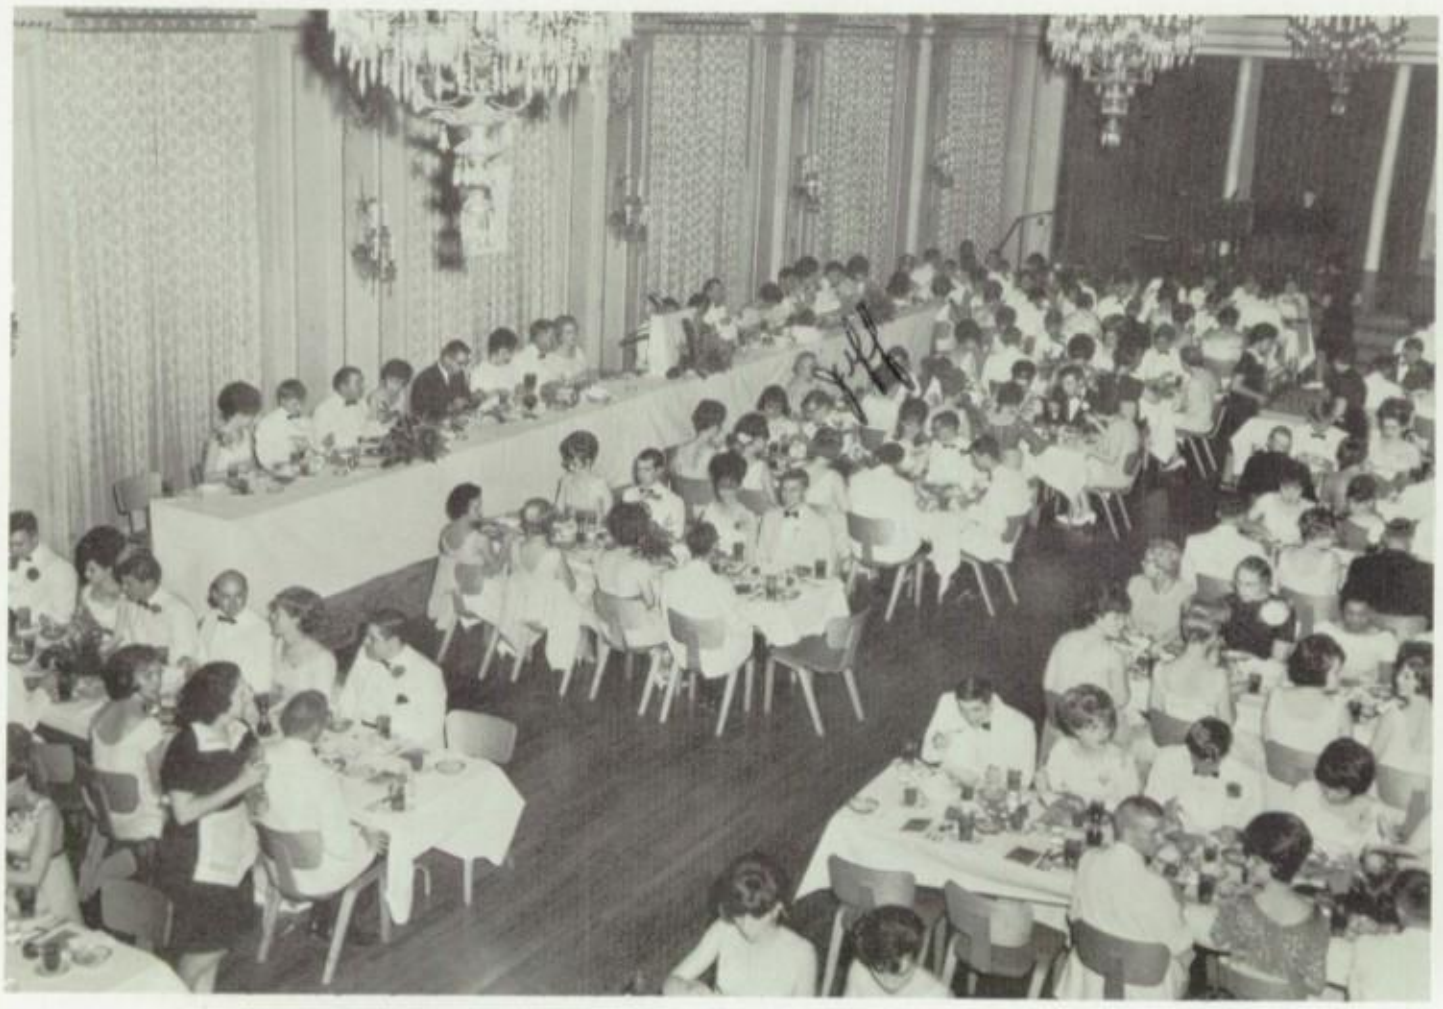
THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Susan Clemens and Connie Briton helped accent the theme.

Miss Ficklin and Mr. Thomas lead the way.

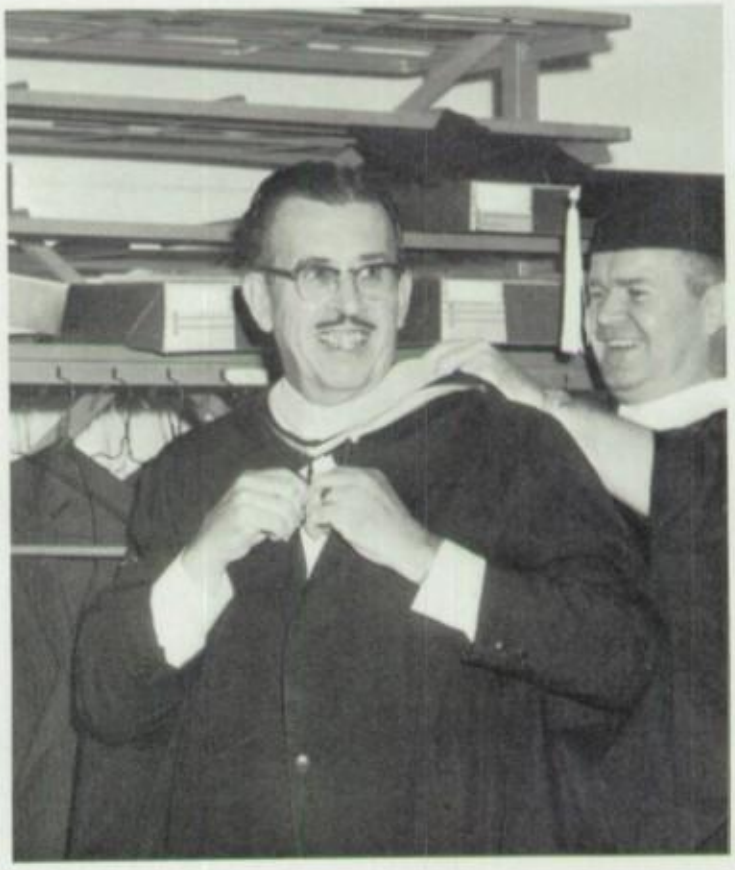
The Junior-Senior Banquet is an annually held event. The banquet is presented by the junior class in the honor of the senior class. As has usually been true, the banquet was held in the Crystal Room at the Hotel Robidoux. The setting for the 1967 Junior-Senior Banquet was "A Night on the Nile." This night will be long remembered by students and faculty alike.

The banquet has begun!



Their future is yet to come; but at the time, they remember only the past.

THEIR FUTURE LIES AHEAD.



Teachers make ready.

Students monopolize the mirror before the ceremony begins.

SOPHOMORES LEAD ON.

These Sophomores have already completed one marvelous year at Lafayette. While they proceed through this year, they will find many happy occasions to record in the pages of their minds. Through the rest of their lives they will be thankful for the opportunity given them to attend Lafayette.

Last year they became acquainted with our building, our grounds, and some of our students and teachers. This year, they will make new friends, learn more about our school, and most of all learn to support our Irish traditions.

When they leave Lafayette they will always cherish the fact that they were a part of this growing Irish family.

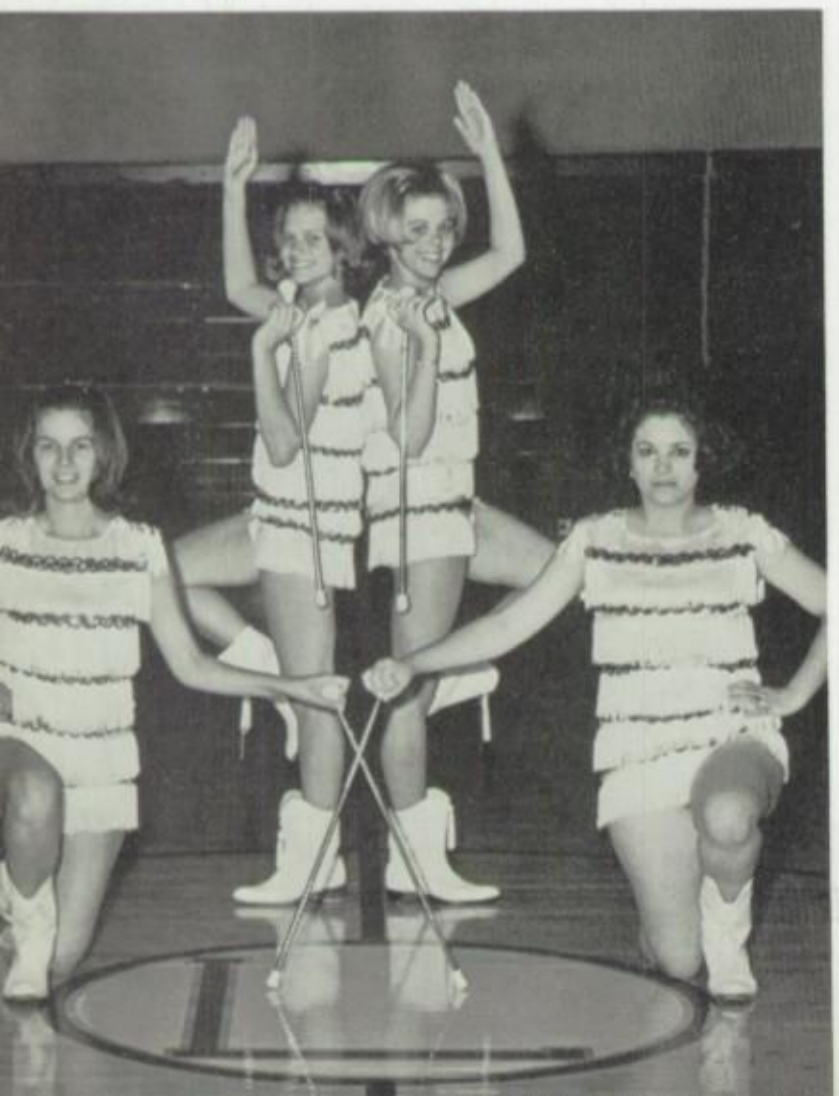
MAJORETTES

There's a great deal of excitement in the air. The players are in the locker room discussing tactics for the second half and the crowd is guessing as to the outcome of the game.

Suddenly the talking stops. A familiar sound is heard. It's the drumbeat of Lafayette's Marching band led by Head Drum Majorette, Sharon Didlo. The band comes in sight and following Sharon are the eleven high-stepping majorettes. Our majorettes not only added much color to the football games, but were also an attraction in the Veterans' Day and Apple Blossom Parades.

Majorettes take time out to model new uniforms.



SENIORS: Vivian Lawrence, Cindy Rush, Carolyn McCall, and Diana Barton.

HEAD DRUM MAJORETTE: Sharon Didlo —Junior

JUNIORS: Erin Shea, Conni Brinton, Ania Lyon, Jody Jennings, and Sherese Carter.

Mascot—Tammy Meyer. SENIORS: Kendra Meyer, Debbie Routh, Carmen Eller, Diana Horn, Kathy Eller, Beverlie Jones, and Debbie Willmore.

The Pom Pon girls, led by Jody Jennings, make an interesting addition to Lafayette's marching band. These girls add zest by participating in colorful halftime shows and by marching in the Veterans' Day and the Apple Blossom Parades. This group of girls is made more interesting with the help of their cute, little mascot—Tammy Meyer. Since these girls are fashion conscious, they like to purchase new clothes, and stay in style. The new style for the Pom Pon girls is a short, gray jumper, worn with a green underblouse. Smart, aren't they?

Preparing for the future is not easy. We must learn to lead as well as follow. A step in the right direction is through our Student Council. It builds minds, strengthens characters, and promotes student activities. Our Council's standards are high. If they continue to govern Lafayette as they have in the past, the students and administration do not need to fear because of their lack of judgment.

HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Future Homemakers of America is open to any girl who has had, or is taking, home economics and is interested in homemaking. The group this year has participated in many activities. In October, they sold corsages for the Homecoming. In November, the Lafayette F.H.A. chapter was host to the regional meeting which was attended by about 800 girls. Later in the year, plans were made for a trip to see the Ice Capades and the girls will produce a fashion show in May.

PURPOSES OF F.H.A.

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

The regional officers prepare to open the meeting.

GOLDEN

Seniors Karen Frank, Barbara Hinkle, Debbie Willmore, and Allen Iske seek new and different ideas for our "Golden" Oak.

Juniors Janice French, Leona Jones, Debby Schopfer, Carol Langemach, and Perriann Davis confer with Miss Wachtel on the subject of layouts.

THE GOLDEN STAFF—GREAT!

A golden book filled with moments of surprise, and memories galore: this is our 1968 Oak. We, the Staff, have recorded the history at Lafayette throughout the past year. May this, our Golden Year, be remembered and cherished by all worthy Irish, as we have preserved its memories within the covers of our Oak.

Pat Newman, Miss Stinson (sponsor), and Rudy Mejia discuss the vital importance of sportsmanship.

Jim Korell, Sharon Hodges, Lester Smith, Mike Brown, Dennis Clark, and Donna Lehman spread information to all Irish via the LIGHT.

Greg Hyder, Mike Wolfe, Debbie Routh, David Oyler, Bob Bolinger, and Nina Taylor receive LIGHTS for prompt distribution.

Our Golden year is drawing to an end, and yet it will be remembered by all true Irish. Our 1967-68 Light staff has worked hard to capture and record all happenings at Lafayette. The glory of winning, the agony of defeat, and the pride of accomplishment: these are now a part of our heritage.

"THE CHRISTMAS STORY OF

Biblical Characters

THE HOLY GRAIL"

Each year since 1930 the student body of Lafayette High School has presented "The Christmas Story of The Holy Grail."

The pageant starts with the difficult procedure of choosing the cast in late November, followed by weeks of endless confusion, sore muscles, and short tempers by all concerned. All of the running around and confusion doesn't even end with the evening performance on the last Friday of school before Christmas vacation.

This year, our Golden Year, was celebrated by the return of alumni to see their sons and daughters on the same stage, and perhaps portraying the same character, they had played as students in any one of the 38 years of the pageant's history.

This year's cheerleaders are pictured in their new white corduroy uniforms. They consist of a white culotte skirt, a crop top and a matching windbreaker, with a green blouse and knee socks.

They have done a great job in promoting school spirit at all football games, basketball games, wrestling matches, and track meets. They have proven to their school, and to all onlookers, their loyalty by leading cheers with great enthusiasm at all sports activities, whether on a clear day or in weather most unpleasant.

We would like to congratulate the cheerleaders for being able to compete in the finals at the cheerleading clinic at Northwest Missouri State College this past summer.

THE OPEN DOOR

The doors of Lafayette High School are always open to those who desire to enter these halls of learning. Since school started last fall, many have come to us to further pursue their education in a new situation; others have departed after finishing their requirements for graduation. To all of these we say, "Hail!" and "Farewell."

Dear Gwen,
It has been nice having you around for the past four years. I wish you a lot of luck and happiness.

MEMORIES!

During each of the past 50 years probably some senior boy has retreated to a quiet place, laid his school books aside, and tried to relive each activity as depicted in his Oak.

Each boy was almost ready to leave these halls, but he would always have a bit of Lafayette with him as long as he had an Oak to remind him of the games, the dances, the plays, his friends, and his teachers.

Memories and dreams are what seniors take with them as they leave high school to enter the adult world of tomorrow.

Gwen,
Guess I'll just
this be our last page. Well,
I guess we're really gonna miss you next year. Maybe we'll see you once in a while. I sure hope so. We've been thru quite a bit together. C.I.T.'s were fun and full of experiences. None of us will ever forget. Then there was troop camps and pictures, horses in the cold. I guess we've known each other longest in scouts. Talk about big maps, did you see the one those girls from Saint Joe brought? There was that stupid fun conference. Aches and

Gwen,
Well, we've finally made it — or I have — & we'll presume you It's been a short four years as Tenie has Flocox — and long in the amount of fun we've stuffed into it. Remember our triumphs in scouts - like Conferences, C.I.T., and Colorado. And learn from our failures: This isn't the end, it's the beginning. Let's hope the future throws our paths together often. Laura Walkins '68

Gwen,
Well, Scouts has really been fun all these years we've been together. It's going to be different without you next. Remember Colorado and everyone else. Well, be good and stay as sweet as you are —

Love,
Monette
